

A promotional banner for a contest. The background is a light beige, textured surface. A large, red, semi-circular burst shape is centered on the page, outlined with a black dashed line. Inside this burst, the text "BURST THE BAGS" is written in large, bold, yellow capital letters, and "STARTS SUNDAY, APRIL 22!" is written in slightly smaller, bold, yellow capital letters. Below this, the text "BE SURE TO COME BACK TOMORROW FOR YOUR CHANCE TO WIN!" is written in white capital letters. On either side of the burst, there are several burlap money bags tied at the top with dark twine. Each bag has a large green dollar sign ($) printed on its front. The bags are arranged in a row, with some partially overlapping. The overall theme is money and winning.
